Platinum SIPP

Terms and conditions

1. About this document

This document contains important information about the SIPP and our services. Customers tell us they understand this information better if they read it without any interruptions, so please take some time out to read it carefully.

This document together with the Terms of Business letter and Fee Schedule to which it is attached set out the terms and conditions for the services provided to you, as a member of the Self-Invested Personal Pension scheme, by InvestAcc Pension Administration Limited.

InvestAcc Pension Administration Limited is the Scheme Administrator of the Scheme and carries out the management of the Scheme, which is a registered pension scheme under Chapter 2 of Part 4 of Finance Act 2004. Your SIPP is established as a supplemental trust under the Scheme and (unless you are unable to act as a trustee) you and the Trustee (a wholly-owned subsidiary of InvestAcc Pension Administration Limited) will be appointed as the joint trustees of this supplemental trust. All investments, including investment bank accounts, for your SIPP will be held in the joint names of you, as trustee of the supplemental trust, and the Trustee. The Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP will be held in the sole name of the Trustee, whose only role is to hold the assets of the supplemental trust, and act as a signatory of bank accounts, to the order of InvestAcc Pension Administration Limited.

1. Application and membership

- 1.1 You must complete and sign an Application Form if you wish to apply to become a Member of the Scheme.
- 1.2 In order to become a Member you must agree to be bound by the terms of the Agreement, which includes these Terms and the Scheme Rules. In particular, you must agree that you will not require, nor attempt to require, the withdrawal of funds from your SIPP except as permitted by the Scheme Rules.
- 1.3 You will become a Member when we notify you that your application has been accepted and that we have received a contribution or transfer. We may decline any application, contribution or transfer at our absolute discretion.
- 1.4 On becoming a Member we will classify you as a 'retail client' for the purposes of the FCA Rules. This classification provides the highest level of protection under the FCA Rules.

2. Contributions and transfers

- 2.1 Contributions and transfers can only be made to your SIPP on the basis set out in the Key Features Document. Valid transfers or contributions received will usually be available for investment within five business days. Banking system failures outside of our control may sometimes make this period longer. If a payment is credited to your account before it has cleared and is not subsequently honoured by the payer, we will make an appropriate adjustment to your SIPP and may deduct a reasonable charge from your SIPP for doing so.
- 2.2 If you make a contribution that is subsequently refunded for any reason, the amount of the refund may be less than the amount originally paid. The reduction may be as a result of our fees, tax, charges or interest applied by HMRC, Adviser Charges, or the performance of investments held within your SIPP.
- 2.3 You are responsible for ensuring that all contributions are within allowable limits for tax relief. We are not responsible for any interest claimed by HMRC on the repayment of any overpaid tax relief. Any such repayment and interest will be paid to HMRC from your SIPP.
- 2.4 You and your Adviser (if any) will be responsible for initiating and co-ordinating the processing of all transfers from other providers. We will not be responsible for any delay in the receipt of such transfers. If a transfer is made in error to your SIPP, we reserve the right in our discretion to make a refund of the transfer without your further authority.
- 2.5 During the transfer process there may be times when you are not able to access your pension or deal with your investments. During those times you will not be able to access your pension or react to market movements. For example, to draw income from your SIPP or to use cash to buy investments to take advantage of a rise in investment markets, or to sell investments to protect against a fall in investment markets. We are not responsible for any losses you may suffer as a result of not being able to access your pension or deal with your investments during the transfer process. If you have concerns regarding this issue, we recommend that you consult with a financial adviser before initiating a transfer.

- 2.6 Contributions paid and transfers made into your SIPP will be held by the Trustee at our discretion either in an Individual Designated Account or a Pooled Account with a Bank or Banks separate from cash belonging to us or the Trustee. To the extent permitted by the FCA Rules, your SIPP cash may be held on a fixed-term deposit or in a notice account. In the event of a Bank's failure, and a shortfall arising in the cash held by that Bank, your claim will be for:
- 2.6.1 in relation to an Individual Designated Account, a share of the cash held in all Individual Designated Accounts at the Bank; or
 - 2.6.2 in relation to a Pooled Account, a share of the cash held in all Pooled Accounts at the Bank.

You may also be able to claim against the Financial Services Compensation Scheme, further details of which are set out in clause 13.

3. Investments and advice

- 3.1 Your SIPP may invest in any Permitted Investment. We reserve the right to change the range of Permitted Investments from time to time and require the sale of any investment that ceases to be a Permitted Investment in our absolute discretion. We will usually only do this if, for example, the investment is of a type (such as contracts for differences), for which we could incur liability in excess of the value of your SIPP, or if we consider the investment to be too complex to administer or if it is not permitted by HMRC.
- 3.2 No advice will be given by us or the Trustee as to the suitability of any investments and nothing published on the InvestAcc Platinum website or provided to you, either verbally or in writing, should be construed as financial, tax or investment advice (as defined) by the Financial Services and Markets Act 2000) unless we expressly state in writing that the contrary shall apply.
- 3.3 We are not responsible for any advice given by your Adviser or decisions taken by you on investments, investment performance or the financial standing of any investment provider.
- 3.4 For the avoidance of doubt, we will not give any advice in relation to the following:
- 3.4.1 the suitability of the Scheme or your SIPP for your own particular circumstances;
 - 3.4.2 the level of contributions (if any) to be paid into your SIPP;
 - 3.4.3 whether or not to make a transfer into your SIPP;
 - 3.4.4 the suitability of any investments you may wish to buy or sell through your SIPP;
 - 3.4.5 whether to access your pension and, if so, whether to elect for income withdrawal, purchase of a guaranteed lifetime pension (or 'annuity') or any other benefit available under the Scheme; and
 - 3.4.6 any other matters relating to tax or financial services whatsoever.

4. Platinum SIPP fees and adviser charges

- 4.1 Fees will be payable on the basis set out in the Terms of Business and Fee Schedule. All fees are exclusive of VAT which is payable in addition to the amounts shown, unless otherwise stated.
- 4.2 The basic annual administration fee and all other monthly fees detailed in the Fee Schedule will be increased on each anniversary of the date on which the first payment of that fee is due, or such other date as we may agree with you (Review Date), in line with the increase in the Average Weekly Earnings (AWE) during the 12-month period ending on 30 September in the calendar year prior to the Review Date. If the AWE is no longer published, the increase will be made by reference to such other index or on such equivalent basis as we may determine, in our absolute discretion, and notify to you. In determining which alternative index to use, we will consider the circumstances, the interests of all of our customers and the interests of our shareholders. We reserve the right to increase our fees by more than the increase in the AWE, if the level of administration work is greater or more complicated than anticipated when the fee was originally set.
- 4.3 We reserve the right to amend our fees (other than those referred to in clause 4.2) from time to time upon 30 days' notice for any of the valid reasons set out in clause 10.2, such notice to be sent by email or post to the last address for you we have on our records. Any such changes will take effect from the date stated in the notice. During the notice period we will not increase our transfer out fees, so you will be free to transfer your SIPP to another registered pension scheme subject to the existing transfer out fees.

- 4.4 If we alter our fees for a valid reason that is not specified in clause 10.2 and you are not happy with the changes, we will waive the existing transfer out fee should you wish to transfer your SIPP to another registered pension scheme, provided the transfer is made within three months from the date on which we give you notice of the change. We will not meet any other costs of the transfer.
- 4.5 If we give you notice of an increase in our transfer out fee you will be offered an opportunity for a period of at least three months from the date of the notice to transfer out to another registered pension scheme at the existing transfer out fee.
- 4.6 We reserve the right to make an additional charge of not more than £30 in any 12-month period if we are required to pay a levy, or interim levy, under the Financial Services Compensation Scheme or by the FCA. Subject to which, we will apply the amount of the additional charge proportionately across all customer SIPP accounts in a manner we consider is fair and reasonable and we will explain the calculation of the charge to you. We will give you 30 days' notice of the amount of the additional charge before it is deducted from the Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP. Should any levy be refunded to us by the Financial Services Compensation Scheme or the FCA, we will return a proportionate amount of the additional charge to your SIPP on the same basis as the charge was initially calculated.
- 4.7 We will only pay Adviser Charges from your SIPP in accordance with instructions received from you, or from your Adviser. You authorise us to pay the Adviser Charges from the Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP until we receive instructions from you, or your Adviser, to stop payments or your Adviser ceases to be authorised by the FCA.
- 4.8 You have the right to vary the amount of Adviser Charges paid from your SIPP by notifying us in writing of the changes required. Changes will only become effective from the date we acknowledge them in writing to you. You authorise us to notify your Adviser if you contact us to vary the amount of Adviser Charges.
- 4.9 You are responsible for ensuring that there is always sufficient cash available in the Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP to pay Fees, Adviser Charges and other Relevant Payments due in relation to your SIPP when due and you agree to reimburse us for any costs or charges we or the Trustee incur if the Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP goes overdrawn.
- 4.10 Subject to clause 4.7, you authorise us to deduct all Fees, Adviser Charges and other Relevant Payments from the Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP on the signature of authorised officials of the Trustee only and without any further authority from you. In the event that the amount of our fees and other Relevant Payments exceeds the amount of cash in the Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP then, subject to us having given you at least 30 days' notice of our intended action, you agree to us giving instructions for the sale of any investments held for your SIPP in order to pay the outstanding amount. The investments to be sold will be determined by us in our absolute discretion. If for any reason it is not possible to realise sufficient cash from your SIPP to pay the outstanding amount, you will be personally liable to us for any shortfall and we will have the right to pursue you personally for payment.
- 4.11 If an Unauthorised Payment is made in respect of your SIPP, you agree to us deducting from your SIPP the amount of any scheme sanction charge, or other charge, HMRC imposes on us and any related interest payment so that we can make payment to HMRC. If there are insufficient funds held in your SIPP, you will be personally liable to us for any shortfall and we will have the right to pursue you personally for payment. We are required to report any Unauthorised Payment to HMRC.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this clause 4, in the ordinary course of events no payments will be made out of the Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP without your prior authority. Exceptions to this rule are the payment of the following (together 'Relevant Payments'):

- 4.11.1 the fees due to us from time to time;
- 4.11.2 any costs, charges, expenses, tax or other liability that we are entitled to recover from your SIPP under these Terms, your supplemental trust or the Scheme Rules, including any payment due under clause 4.11; and
- 4.11.3 any sum that we need to pay to discharge any liability that the Trustee has incurred due to your breach of your supplemental trust or, in relation to any commercial property held in your supplemental trust, a breach by the person appointed to act as the property manager of that property of the terms of their appointment or of any other terms agreed with us or the Trustee.
- 4.12 We and our Associates, to the extent permitted by the FCA Rules, are entitled to receive and retain for our own account:
- 4.12.1 payments from a Bank calculated by reference to the aggregate of cash balances held across all Administrative Bank Accounts for Members of the Scheme, or on such other basis as we or our Associates may agree with the Bank from time to time; and

4.12.2 any other payments from any third parties in relation to services provided in relation to the Scheme.

4.13 Certain investments may result in commission being payable to your Adviser. If this applies, such payments will be paid directly to your Adviser by a third party. We are not responsible for disclosing details of any such commission or of Adviser Charges earned from or paid by your SIPP. This is the responsibility of your Adviser.

4.14 We will pay interest to your SIPP on cleared funds held in the Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP at the interest rate stated in the Fee Schedule, as varied from time to time.

5. Personal information

6.2 You will be personally responsible for any costs, claims, expenses, tax charges, demands and losses whatsoever (Liabilities) that we, the Trustee, our employees, agents, Associates and Third-Party Service Providers (Relevant Parties) may suffer or incur as a result of supplying you with administration services for your SIPP, except where that Liability arises from the negligence, fraud or wilful default of the Relevant Party. Your responsibility under this clause 6.2 will continue to apply even if you transfer your SIPP benefits to another registered pension scheme or a qualifying recognised overseas pension scheme.

6.3 Except as provided in clause 6.1, we shall not be liable in any event for:

6.3.1 any indirect, special or consequential loss or damage;

6.3.2 loss that is not the natural result, in the usual course of things, of the event that gave rise to the claim and that was not likely to arise from a special circumstance which we knew of, or should have known of, when that event took place;

6.3.3 any loss of income or revenue, loss of profits or anticipated savings, including investment gains and losses, loss of the ability to invest or reinvest or wasted expenditure (except where such losses are a direct result of our breach of the Agreement) and in all cases regardless of whether or not such loss was foreseeable or arises from circumstances particular to you that you had advised us of.

6.4 We do not accept any liability or responsibility for any actions resulting from information found on any websites with whom we have established links.

7. Circumstances beyond our control

- 11.3 We have the right to terminate your SIPP at any time by giving you not less than 30 days' notice. We will not exercise this right unreasonably. If we terminate your SIPP, we have the right to sell all of your SIPP investments and hold the proceeds in the Administrative Bank Account for your SIPP pending receipt of instructions from you to transfer your SIPP to another registered pension scheme.
- 11.4 If you instruct us to make a transfer from your SIPP to another pension scheme, the transfer must always be made direct to the trustees or administrators of the receiving pension scheme.

- 12.7 We may transfer without your specific consent (i) our rights and obligations under the Agreement or (ii) where we propose to transfer a group or class of SIPPs, an undertaking, business or part of an undertaking or business, or material part of our assets to another firm, we may transfer our rights, powers, obligations and liabilities under or in connection with the Agreement, to a third party, but only where we reasonably consider that the transfer will not materially prejudice your rights under the Agreement and you have not given notice terminating the Agreement on a date before the date of transfer.
- 12.8 In the event of a transfer under clause 12.7, you instruct and authorise us to transfer to the new provider our and your rights, powers, obligations and liabilities under or in connection with the Agreement and your SIPP cash and assets in each case without your specific consent.
- 12.9 We will normally give you 30 days' notice (unless it is impracticable in the circumstances) of a transfer of the kind set out in clause 12.7. If we are unable to give you 30 days' notice, we will notify you no later than seven days after the transfer has taken place (or such later period as agreed with our regulators), setting out the details required of us. If for any reason we are not reasonably able to serve notice on you personally, we may instead give you notice by publishing it on our website.
- 12.10 Where we give notice under clause 12.9, on the date specified in the notice:

- 14.4 When exercising your cancellation rights, you must confirm whether you wish to cancel your SIPP, a transfer, or your decision to access your pension.
- 14.5 Subject to clause 14.10, if you cancel your SIPP we will repay any contributions we have received.
- 14.6 Subject to clause 14.10, if you cancel a transfer we will attempt to repay the amount received to the transferring scheme. If the transferring scheme refuses to accept the repayment, or will only accept it on different terms to those applying prior to the transfer, you must provide instructions on whether to pay the amount to another registered pension scheme. If you have not provided your instructions within the 30-day cancellation period, we reserve the right to take reasonable administration charges from your SIPP until such time as we are able to make the transfer to another registered pension scheme.

- 14.7 If you cancel your decision to access your pension, you must return any payment that has been paid to you in relation to your decision.
- 14.8 If you do not exercise any of your cancellation rights you will not be able to cancel your SIPP, or any relevant transfer, or your choice to access your pension at a later date. This will not affect your right to transfer your SIPP to another registered pension scheme or, if applicable, purchase an annuity.
- 14.9 If you make an investment within the 30-day cancellation period, you will lapse your cancellation rights. If you lapse your cancellation rights, you will no longer be able to cancel your SIPP, or have a transfer payment repaid to the transferring scheme. You may also lapse your cancellation rights by giving us notice in writing to the address set out in the Contacts section at the end of these Terms.
- 14.10 If you exercise cancellation rights, any amount repaid will be reduced by the amount of any Adviser Charges that have already been paid from your SIPP. If you wish to recover the amount of these Adviser Charges, you must contact your Adviser.
